+ The lande of mr Peter Morse.

This house lott rontayninge by estimacion eight arrell or there about be the same more or lesse lyinge in the Southstreet with a parrell of meadow joyninge to the southend of it which parrell of meadow joyneth unto mill brooke the other end of the said house lott joyneth to the highway that goth into the great Ruder meadow towarde bridle poynt. wch said land lyeth between the house lott of Thomas Goodnow and the house lott late of william Parker and now in the possession of william Browne/

Allso another peece of upland lyinge upon ankers of land called wilnerte hills outs against the house lotts of the southstreet rontayninge by estimacion ten arrell or there about be the same more or lesse butting at the one end to the meadow of Thomas Goodnow and the other end upon a peece of upland of the said peter Morse and lyeth between the highway that goth to Cutthirtwat & the land late of william parker & now in the possession of Anthony Royse

Allso another peece of upland lyinge upon the farland Mead of land rontayninge by estimacion ten arrell or there about be the same more or lesse butting in the one end to the highway before spoken of that goth to Cutthirtwat and lyeth between pynebrooke on the east side of it and the other side of it joyninge to the lande of Thomas Browne Anthony Royse and william parker/

Allso sixteene arrell of upland be the same more or lesse lyinge upon longher nerke butting at the one end to the common way and the other end to the great Ruder and lyeth between the lande of mr Edmond Browne and mr Robert Sowthcum

Allso another peece of upland rontayninge by estimacion thirtethree arrell or there about be the same more or lesse lyinge on the Northside (south) of a hill granted to the said peter Morse called berry hill and joyninge to a brooke called Coldbrooke on the Northside of it wch said hill joyneth to the lande late of Thomas Munnings and now in the possession of mr Peter Morse

Allso sixteene Rarrell of meadow be the same more or lesse lyinge in the great Ruder meadow the meadow of Thomas Goodnow on the southside and the meadow of william Parker now in the possession of mr Browne on the Northside of it

14