Sudbury February ye 6th 1753.

We the Subscribers laid out a Town Way from the three Ponds so called on the East Side of Sudbury River on pine plain where the Proprietors left Land for a high Way by the three Ponds to Grass Pond Beginning at the Corner of Mr Jonathan Griffyn's Land so running South westerly by Land in the Possession of Joseph Curtis as the Cart path now goes by Sd Curtis's Land: And so on by land claimed by William Foy Esq: till it comes in to the Way by Mr Elias Moore's North Corner formerly Mr John Adams's North Corner — S.d Way is laid out all the Way one Rod & a half wide.

Ephraim Curtis
Josiah Browne
Sam.l Dakin
Jacob Moore
Hopestill Bent
} Select Men of Sudbury.

An Account of the Bound Marks between the Towns of Concord & Sudbury from Concord River to Acton corner: Renewed by Samuel Dakin & Phinehas Haynes of Sudbury by order of the Select Men of S.d Town: And Francis Wheeler and Stephen Hosmer by order of the Select Men of Concord April ye 26: 1753

1. An heap of Stones on Potters Rock so called.
2. A pine Tree Stump marked.
3. A pine Tree marked, by a little Pond hole.
4. A pine Stump on the Northwest Corner of Haynes's Island
5. A pine Tree marked on Dungehole Hill
6. A pine Tree marked on said Hill
7. A pine Stump and Stones on S.d Hill
8. A pine Tree against the Westerly End of white Pond
9. A White Oak on Dunsdale Rocks
10. A White Oak Stump and Stones near Samuel Dakins Pasture
11. A Swamp Oak Stump in S.d Dakins Pasture
12. A pine Tree near Marlborough Road.
13. A pine Tree fell down near Cedar Swamp Brook.
14. A White Oak Stump, on the West Side Said Brook
15. A pine Tree near the Deer pond
16. A heap of Stones near the Old Mill path so called being Sudbury Old Corner.
17. A pine Tree marked
18. A heap of Stones where was a pine tree
19. A pine Stump near Joseph Haywards House
20. A pine Stump by the Side of a Valley
21. A black Oak Tree marked.
22. A Heap of Stones being Acton Corner.

Renewed by the Subscribers —

Francis Wheeler
Stephen Hosmer jun.r
Samuel Dakin
Phinehas Haynes.