[illegible] 1652 [illegible] agreed [illegible] Thomas Clifton to build a meetinghouse [illegible] Reynold Edward Good William Hoyt John Ruddock John Coombs to see the agreement performed upon betweene the towne & the workmen agreed upon at their own costs & charges & their names as followeth

At the same time the worke men have undertaken & undertake for a [illegible] the [illegible] years

The 2d day of February 1652 Lieutenant Goodnow Ensigne Royal & Ed Curtis are chosen by the selectmen to joine with Concord men to run the whole line between Lynn bounds & our towne bounds and also Lieutenant Goodnow Edward Curtis & John Hammond Junior are chosen to run the line between our bounds & mr Dennis farme & also on the west side of the Pond farm line [illegible]

The 7th day of March 1653 mr Nathan Mason William Ward & John Ruddock Henry Ford John Moore Thomas Kings & John Gro are chosen selectmen from this day for one yeare.

It is also agreed by the towne that the pastor shall have for his last salary yeare ended the first day of this present month twenty three pounds.

The same day John Smith acknowledged that he had received all that was formerly granted to mr Lynn & the towne & also fifty shillings out of the towne rate now to be levyed

The 24th of March 1653 It is ordered by the selectmen that John Tolt & John Butler shall be surveyors of the fences for the fields in the Neck, John Moore & John Maynard for the fields where they live, Thomas Kings & Thomas Plimpton for the fields where they live, John Moore & John Ruddock for the field where John Ruddocks dwells, John Maynard & John Ward for the field where John Ward dwells & they are to view the fences & to them made by men of their fields according to the court order, And John Maynard John How & John Blanchard are appointed to be the generall surveyors all over the towne to judge of the sufficiency of the fences in the generall fields if they that are particularly appointed for their fields are neg ligent. And also to judge of the sufficiency of the fences for more particular proprietyes in case of damage or difference