[illegible] at last entered on the other side of the bar to part doly [illegible] the common land where the fine mill first granted to Sudbury was done John Ruddock being here present did by his vote take for himselfe and William Ward dissent from the act

The 22th day of January 1654 then a publike town meeting warned purpose y to take notice of the act of the select men made for sizing the commons when the pastor by the desire of the towne (as by their vote did appear) had ought the lord for his blessings in the entrance of the day after some discourse the act of the select men was publikly read and debated, this vote follow ing was made you that iudge the act of the select men made for sizing the commons to be a righteous act & do consent to them in their act desire it by drawing your selves together in the one end of the meeting house to his vote there appeared these that follow:

John Parmenter sen[r] agent for Herbert Pelham Esq[r]
for Thomas Walgrave Esq[r]
for Capt: William Pelham Edmund Browne
John Parmenter sen[r]
William Browne for himselfe
& Thomas Brown
Edmund Goodenow for Joseph Taylor
John Hayne
Joseph Hayne
John Parmenter Junr
Henry Curtis
John Crouch Jane Goodenow widdow for herselfe & Andrew Wheler
Peter Noyes Junr
Thomas White
Thomas Allen
James Pendleton
John Freeman
John Smith
Hugh Griffith Solomon Rhale 3 votes & the select men who made the act namely Peter Noyes sen[r] Walter Hayne
Edmund Goodenow
Thomas Noyes.
these voted mr Herbert Pelham & his agent voted against because not right to vote herein

Heard then desired that those who are of a contrary mind would signify it by drawing them selves together in the other end of the meeting house to his vote there appeared these that follow

William Ward
John Ruddock
John Wood
John Blandford for himselfe & his wife
Robert Darnell
Thomas Goodenow
John Hone
Henry Coker two votes
John Hunt
John Maynard
Richard Newton
Henry Pitt
Mary Coker widdow two votes John Tolle.

Thomas Kings
Thomas Pitt two votes
John Butler
Edward Pitt
John White
John Redgate
Peter King
John Woodward
Peter Brent
these votes the ten last were objected against as having not right to vote herein.

Edmund Pitt
Robert Daniel & Thomas Plymton were noted & acted neither way