

his house left three acres more or less lying on the West side of the higge was that leadeth to the River and on the south side of the the house left of Joseph Caynter and now in the possession of fourdum.

~~Also four acres of meadow was the right left in the second~~ ~~division of the river to John Blandford meadow on the south side and~~ ~~John wood on the north side~~

Also one acre and a half of meadow be the same more or less butting on the north side to Bryan pondleton meadow and on the south side to the meadow of Joseph Caynter now in the possession of Mr. fourdum.

Also four acres of meadow was the right left in the second division of the river to John Blandford meadow on the south side and John wood on the north side

1643

Granted to John Blandford fifteen acres of upland, lying on the west side of the River be the same more or less, joining nextward to a parcel of land called Strawberry Gill, of the ward to the land of John Tott.
Also seven acres of upland lying on the west side of the River, of the between the lands of Henry Jorntis of Robert Warvill.
Also a parcel of land being an acre or thereabouts about lying between the house of left of Bryan pondleton the right way, joining to the free pond.

1644

William How bought of Edmund Good now a parcel of upland containing by estimation four acres or thereabouts be the same more or less of the of land by the between the house of left of John Blandford of the house of left of Henry right, of the land was first granted to Joseph Caynter of the house of left of Henry and of the house of left of William Koele of the house of left of Edmund Good now. And the said William How gave by the house of left of John Blandford the said parcel of upland was bought of the said Edmund Good now of the between the house of left of the said John Blandford of the house of left of Henry right. In satisfaction whereof the said John Blandford gave by the to the said William How the house of left of the house of left of Henry of upland all the right between the lands of John Blandford of the house of left of Henry of John Blandford of the house of left of the house of left of Henry widow Dorset who now is the wife of the said John Blandford.

Granted to John Blandford six acres of meadow in satisfaction for the right third division of the river laid out upon the river playne between water town pety and pindbrooke was given resigned up into the town, and the six acres granted in in consideration thereof by the right to the pindbrooke meadow in the general parcel of one part of the between the meadow of Thomas Plynton of the meadow of Thomas Knight another part of it by the between the meadow of the said Thomas Knight of the meadow of John Hayme another part of it joined to the west end of John Hayme meadow and another part of it at the south end of the meadow of Thomas Knight called whiter moor. All the right of meadow was laid out by the town's appointment by Edmund Goodenore Thugr Griffyn was the right of meadow John Blandford to John Hayme.

27

granted to John Blandford one acre of meadow in satisfaction for the right third good through the meadow at the bridge the acre of meadow by the right of the meadow is equal to the west of the meadow granted to Thomas white which was the right of the to a white oak marked in the North side of it on the right side of it