

to the Bap. & Sons first named; and in further bound so may more fully appear, by the Plan hereto Annexed; All which is Submitted to the T^d Town of Sudbury, for their Acceptance and Confirmation &c. Surveyed by John. Haynes

Sudbury May 8th 1778

I have laid out unto William Parmenter of Sudbury & to his Heirs & Assigns forever, By Order from the Committee, chosen & Impowred by the T^d Town of Sudbury, for to sell the Lands, lying & being in the two thirty Rod wide High Ways (so called) Lying & being in the Lands called the New Grants, in T^d Sudbury: Three Acres and Forty two Rods of Land: Situate lying & being in the Westerly thirty Rod wide High Way; being one of the two above mentioned, High Ways; And is bounded Beginning at a Buttern Wood Tree, Standing & being on the Northerly Side of the Road called Marlborough Road; And from thence South Westerly running as the T^d Road now goes, until it comes to land laid out to Isaiah & Sedidiah Parmenter & then turning Westerly, as the same T^d Road now stands - Almost four Rods to the West line of the abovesaid West: 30: Rods wide High Way - And then turning N. 18: d: 30: m: E. 42: Rods to a Stake & Stone - Then turning & Eastwardly running, by and on the Southerly Side of land laid out to Joseph Parmenter: 20: Rods to another Stake & Stone. And then turning and Southerly running as the fence now stands, to another Stake & Stone just by on the Eastwardly Side of a White Oak Tree marked; And from thence turning to the T^d White Oak, and so on by nothing South Westerly about: 10: Rods to a Juniper Tree marked - And from thence turning & Southerly running about: 10: Rods to the Buttern Wood Tree first mentioned - And it is further to be noted that the T^d William Parmenters New Dwelling House, stands on the abovesaid devided Premises and also that there is a Way of two Rods wide running through the abovesaid Premises to Paltiah Parmenters Land as it is pointed out in the Plan: All which is more fully & more clearly set forth - and bounded, as may appear by the Plan hereto Annexed - All which is Submitted to the Town of Sudbury for their Acceptance & Confirmation &c.