

147

high way Going to Elisha Rices: And the high way is laid out all the way from Concord Road till it Comes into the above high way in no place less then two Rods wide and all the Rest of the way as the proprietors of Sudbury have left Land to a Comadate a high way:

Joshua Haynes } Select
Joseph Noyes } men
Noah Clap } of
Ephraim Curtis } Sudbury
Sam^l Graves }
John moor }

Sudbury February 27. 1726:
upon the Desire of Capt Thomas Brintnes to the Select men of Sudbury for a Convenient High way Running through his own Land viz we the Select men viewing the Ground shown us by Capt Brintnes: Do Judge it to be a Convenient way: And Not any way wrong to the Neighbourhood: Beginning att the South End att a stake set up att the Country Road which Leads to Malbrough and so through the Land of Capt Thomas Brintnes Two Rods wide westward of sd Stake: And so on Northwesterly to the path that Leads from the sd Capt Brintnes Shop to the house of John Goodnow: to the westward of a birch Stake set up in sd fence: and so on until it Comes into the Road that Leads to the west meeting House: It is Concluded that the way shall be Two Rods wide through out

Joseph Noyes }
Sam^l Graves } Select
Noah Clap } men
John moor }
John Rices }