

we the subscribers select men of the town of Sudbury being a Committee Chosen and Impowred by the town to make satisfaction to the persons that have had high ways laid out through their lands lying in the New Grants out of the Thirty Rods high way: we the subscribers have Granted and laid out to Deacon John Moor of the town of Sudbury and to his heirs and assigns for Ever: in full satisfaction for a high way: leading from Mr David Hows &c: to the meeting house in the west precinct in the town of Sudbury: laid out some time since by the select men ^{of the town} through his land Called New Grant: land: viz: one hundred and twelve Rods of land: lying and being in the town of Sudbury: and on the southerly part of the Easterly thirty Rods high way: bounded southerly by the land of Benjamin parmenter: full and marked trees Easterly and Northerly: bounded by land being part of the: 30: Rods high way westerly bounded partly by the land of John meads: and partly by land left for a way from the meads land into the 30 thirty Rods high way: and is further bounded as may appear by a plat of the same as it was surveyed by John Hayns
Sudbury four february: 4: 1728: 9:

Joshua Hayns
Noah Clap } select
Daniel Eastbrook } men
John Rice } of
John Hayns } Sudbury

we the subscribers select men of Sudbury being a Committee Chosen and Impowred by the town: to make satisfaction to the persons that have had high ways laid out through their lands lying in the New Grants out of the Thirty Rods high way: we have Granted and laid out to Josiah Haydon of the town of Sudbury: to go to him his heirs and assigns: for Ever: in full satisfaction for a high way: leading from Mr David Hows &c: to the meeting house in the west precinct in the town of Sudbury: laid out some time since by the select men of the town through his lands Called New Grant land seven acres and fifty Rods: of land lying and being in the town of Sudbury on the westerly side of the town of Sudbury River: and in the Easterly thirty Rods high way in two parcels: as Namely seven acres and: 32: Rods: Near to and Easterly from the Haydens Now Dwelling House: bounded westerly by land left for a way of four rods wide lying and being between this land and the New Grant land of the town of Josiah Haydon: And is further bounded as may appear by a plat of the same as it was surveyed by John Hayns: also: 18: Rods of meadow land joining to and at the westerly end of the town of Josiah Haydon lying meadow being all that is within his Now standing fence:
Sudbury: february: 4: 1728: 9

Joshua Hayns
Noah Clap } select
Daniel Eastbrook } men
John Rice } of
John Hayns } Sudbury

Received of the town of Sudbury the sum of 100: 00: 00: for the purchase of the land of the town of Sudbury