At a Select mens meeting in Judbury April 15: 1734 at the Request of some of the Inhabitants of said Town to lay out a Highway to a Commodate the publick better then where it Now Goes Leading from the Contry Road to Lanharn: for their accommodations in Going to market: &c And for Going from town to town said Select men laid out the High way through part of Isaac Rodds Land and partly through John Goodnews Land we began in Isaac Rodds Land by the place where James Smiths House formerly stood at Turning out of the Old Road the Road is laid out three Rods wide and two feet bounded Easterly by a Rock in John Goodnews fence and so on to a Stake and Stone by an apple tree going the East bounds and against said apple tree is two Rods wide on the west side of said Stake and bounded westerly by Stake within Isaac Rodds fence And so from against said apple tree said Road is two Rods wide through Isaac Rodds Land bounded westerly by said Rodds fence till it comes into the Old Road and Crossing said Road into John Goodnews Land Crossing said Goodnews Land to a pair of Draw Bars in said Goodnews Stone wall by the Country Road said way is laid out in Goodnews Land two Rods wide where it comes into the Country Road two Rods westerly from the East End of said Draw Bars and two Rods and a half wide where it Enters to Goodnews Land bounded Easterly and westerly by stakes and Stones
