

169
 Indbury March 2: 1749 at the Request of Mr. Isaac Rice & others the selectmen of Indbury Laid out a highway on Town Road as followeth beginning at the Land of Mr. Gaspar Rice in Indbury at a stake and stones from thence Running North Easterly To a Black oak stump thence Running thence near the same point to a stake & stones by a Logg fence so Running By said fence to a Keritree marked & Running By said fence to Mr. John Rices southeasterly corner Continuing near the same point to a stake & stones about Eight feet Easterly from said John Rices Dwelling house then to a Notched Gray oak stump then to a walnut tree marked in the fence then to a black birch to a stake & stones and from thence to another stake & stones near highway Called Dedham Road said marks are on the westerly side of said Road which highway is Two Rods wide & Being Lands left By the proprietors of said Town for a highway

Joseph Brown
 Hopestill Bent
 Edward Harmon
 Samuel Dakin } selectmen

1749 - A Highway Laid out Beginning at a stake and stones at Matich Line said Road to be two Rods wide & the marks on the southerly side and from said stake & stones to a stone wall of Mr. Brintnalls so running westerly to another stake & stones & to another stake & stones by Capt. Damons fence & to by said fence to the Townway Leading from Lt. Brintnalls to Capt. Damons

Joseph Brown
 Hopestill Bent
 Thomas Damsen
 Samuel Dakin
 Edward Harmon } selectmen

Indbury November 4: 5th 1750

The selectmen of Indbury Laid out a highway Beginning at a stake at the Northerly corner of Cornelias Woods meadow Called Lowance meadow and so Running a Long by part of Joseph Browns Esq^r farm: untill it comes unto the Northerly corner of said farm and then turning a little westerly to the old path to a pine tree marked & so on to another pine tree marked: and so on to a white oak tree marked and so on to another white oak tree marked and then to a Gray or a black oak tree marked and then to a pine tree marked and then to a little pine marked and so on as the path is now trod to the Centre Road Leading from Indbury to Marlborough the above mentioned marks are on the west side of said highway: the highway is Laid Two Rods wide

Edward Harmon
 Jacob Moore
 Daniel Goodenow
 Hopestill Bent } Selectmen

Indbury November 4: 5th 1750
 The selectmen of Indbury Laid out a highway Beginning at a stake at the Northerly corner of Cornelias Woods meadow Called Lowance meadow and so Running a Long by part of Joseph Browns Esq^r farm: untill it comes unto the Northerly corner of said farm and then turning a little westerly to the old path to a pine tree marked &
 so on to another pine tree marked: and so on to a white oak tree marked and so on to
 another white oak tree marked and then to a Gray or a black oak tree marked and then
 to a pine tree marked and then to a little pine marked and so on as the path is now trod
 to the Centre Road Leading from Indbury to Marlborough the above mentioned marks are on the west side of said highway: the highway is Laid Two Rods wide