

March Anno Domini, 1787.

March 12th 1787.

The Town being Mett, according to the foregoing Adjournment, proceeded to a choice of other Town Officers, as express'd in the 1st Article. — — — — —

The Vote being call'd, to see, if the Town, would chuse a Committee of Correspondence, it pass'd in the Negative. — — — — —

Wardens.	Field Drivers.	and orderd the Assessors, to make the same into a Rate, forthwith: and chose the Surveyors of High Ways, Collectors, & S ^d Tax: Each person to have the Liberty, of paying his proportion, of S ^d Tax, in Labour, at 3 ^d per Day, for a Man: — 1/6 per Day for a Yoke of Oxen: & 10 ^d per Day, for a Cart, untill the first Day of September next: after that Time, at but, 2 ^d per Day, for a Man, & so in proportion for Oxen, & Carts: — 8 Hours Labour, to be considered as a Days work. — — — — —
+ M ^r Daniel Puffer.	+ M ^r John Brigham.
+ Lieut Abijah Brigham.	+ M ^r Jonathan Fairbanks.
+ M ^r Ebenezer Wood.	Surveyors of High ways.
Surveyor of Shingles.	for the North East Ward,
+ M ^r Samuel Cutting.	+ M ^r Abel Tower.
Sealer of Leather.	+ M ^r Hope Brown.
+ M ^r Hope Brown.	for the North West Ward,
	Lieut Hopestill Willis.
Fence Viewers.	Col ^l Jonathan Rice.
M ^r Isaac Puffer.	for the South East Ward,
M ^r Thomas Carr.	Capt Augustus Moore.
+ M ^r Daniel Loring.	Lieut Rowand Bogle.
	for the South West Ward,
	+ M ^r Thomas Walker.
	+ M ^r John Moore.
Deer Reave.	Fish Meaves.
+ M ^r Jeremiah Robbins.	M ^r William Moore
	+ M ^r Reubin Willis.
Trything Men.	Clerk of the Market.	Then the Town, pass'd a Vote, to take the Body Seats, & attend to the Business of the Day, in a more Orderly, & attentive Manner,
+ M ^r Jason Haynes.	+ M ^r Daniel Loring.
M ^r Reubin Vorse.
+ M ^r Hezekiah Johnson.	Article 2 ^d — — — — —
Hog Reaves.	granted the sum of
+ M ^r Edward Boynton.	One Hundred pounds,
M ^r Joseph Baker.	for the purpose men-
	-tioned in this Article:	