

occupied, excepting at meetings of Town Officers and Town Committees when his presence is not required by them. - He shall keep the doors, windows, and blinds, closed and fastened when the house is not occupied, ring the bell when necessary, - saw and split the wood and put the same into the wood closets, - shovel a path, when there is snow, from the front door, to the road, and shall make good to the town any damage to the lamps, settees or other furniture of the house which may occur through his fault or neglect. - he shall also give bonds if required by the Selectmen.

Then let out the taking care of the house for the ensuing year to Webster Moore for the sum of seventeen dollars, said sum to be payment in full for all his services.

Art 12 Voted that the Taxes be made payable and collected same as last year, and let out the collecting of the same to Samuel A. Jones for the sum of thirty-nine dollars.

Art 13 Voted to instruct the selectmen to borrow money to pay bills that may be brought against the town the present year if necessary.

Art 14 Voted to instruct the selectmen to print the receipts and expenditures of the town the present year, provided the same can be printed and ready for delivery on the first ^{Monday} of March next.

Art 15 Voted to Pass over this Article

Art 16 Voted to authorize the Treasurer to sell lots in the new burying ground

Art 17 Voted that the Selectmen be a committee to make the distribution of the interest arising from the Ethier Goodnow and other Funds