

- III It shall be the duty of the Librarian to attend to the delivery and return of books belonging to the Library, and keep an accurate record of the same; to keep the room and books in good order; to collect all fines which may be incurred; to assess and collect all damage for harm done to books, and pay the same to the Treasurer of the Committee Monthly; to keep a fire in the building as directed by the Library Committee; to conform to all the requirements of said Committee in all particulars in which his duty is not defined by the town, and to report to the Committee his doings, and the state of the Library at any time they may require; and he shall be responsible for all damage done to the books through his carelessness or neglect.
- IV The Treasurer of the Committee shall charge of all monies received by the Committee from the Town, or from any other source for the benefit of the Library; and also, all which may be collected by the Librarian for fines and assessments, and shall report to the Committee at any time they may require.
- V The Library shall be open for the delivery and return of books on Wednesday and Saturday of each week from two to nine o'clock, except as hereinafter provided.
- VI Any person belonging to the town twelve years of age and upwards, may take books from the Library; provided, however, that no person shall have more than two books at any one time, and no family more than four.
- VII All books belonging to the Library shall be returned thereto on or before the second Wednesday of February of each year on penalty of the cost of the books; and no books shall be delivered after the Saturday preceding said Wednesday until the Committee have prepared their annual report.
