

It is ordered by the freemen the eleventh day of November moneth 1644. the every Inhabitant that every Inhabitant that hath any land layd out shall bringe in a copy of it that it may be recorded by the twentieth day of this present moneth. Every man that shall make default shall forfeit twenty shillings for his default.

Victor Weyss

Walter Hayes

Edmond Hayes

Edmond Hayes

It was intended from the beginning of the plantation if it now confirmed that there shall be two road wide left in the meadow from the bridge at munning point to the hard upland at the end of Edmond Hayes meadows.

Also it is concluded that there shall be a hedge way between the great wide meadows and the house lot from the bridge at John Blandford to Widdes point road shall be four wide.

Also it is concluded that there shall be a hedge way between the upland of the meadows from the house lot of Walter Hayes to the meadow of John Goodnow and shall be four wide where it is not precisely bounded already from the meadow of John Goodnow to the end of the road be four wide and also that there shall be a hedge way between the upland and the meadow of the west side of the road from the one end of the meadow to the other way shall be six wide. And these hedge ways are to be layd out by

Victor Weyss

Walter Hayes

Edmond Hayes

Edmond Hayes

Edmond Hayes