

At a meeting of the town of 1651. The townsmen to give John Smith for what he has done for the town of 1651. The townsmen

At a town meeting held on 2^d of January 1651 John Smith was elected to be the town clerk for the year 1651 for his fee is to give 6^d

It is also granted that Mr. Mayo shall have 6 acres of meadow land in full satisfaction for George Munnings his gratulation of all so that he shall have eight acres of meadow land out to Mr. for full satisfaction for what meadows he wanted of his friend division of meadows

It is also granted to the pastor that he shall have up to him the quantity of 15 acres or 20 acres at not more than full satisfaction for his meadows he wants out against bonds payable granted to John Grouse six acres of meadows in full satisfaction for all wrong formerly received by overvaluing his meadows & for of his meadows formerly granted to his father & brother

It is ordered that whosoever shall take any oats or other forbid for duty oats & other four pence for every bushel for January 21st 1651. It is ordered by the select men that John T. & John Butler are appointed surveyors of the town for the year 1651 John Moore & John Maynard for their fields & John Moore & John for their fields John Maynard & John Ward for their fields & Thomas & Thomas & William for their fields. And John T. & John Butler Goodenow & William Brown and appointed to be the general surveyors the town all over the town to judge of the sufficiency of the the general fields if they be not particularly appointed for their fields and negligent & also to judge of the sufficiency of the town for particular proprieties in case of damage & difference

January 23rd 1651 The town in a public town meeting did agree all the orders formerly made for the enlarging the old meetinghouse for building a new meetinghouse & to be of no force Thomas Goodenow gave liberty to lay down an acre or an acre & half of that land he bought of William Barley at the forty east corner & take so much of the other corner

It is also agreed by the town that Edmund this former William Brown & John Luddock & Henry that they four shall desist the pastor's approval to build galleries in the old meetinghouse if the pastor be content then the town shall give full pay to the pastor & these four men to continue the work as they shall to workmen in the bargain they shall make the town do promise to approve of & to pay what they agree for Edmund Goodenow William Barley John Moore & John Butler to lay out a path that runs by the west brook about Goodman Barley or John Smith's meadows & also to lay out a right way from the field of the meadows to the outside of the bounds the way through the it to be six feet wide & the way in the upland forty feet wide