

The 19th Day of February 1654 in a publick town meeting before ordered that hereafter now to be taken should be taken it was formerly taken for the payinge the pasted manum payinge the town debts. William Ward is appointed to god Judge Griffyn to take the money.

It is also agreed that John Parmenter Junr shall keep a house of common entertainment. That the Court shall be moved on the 27th day of February 1654. It is ordered by the select men that the made the 14th day of March 1654 shall stand in force from that day forward that Edmund Goodnow shall see it putt in execution that it be ordered to be yeared oranged.

It is also ordered by the select men that all cattle except youngd nere weaned calves shall bee hearded all the summer tyme And if any man willem the town bound shall suffer any of his cattle to goe without a keeper from the tyme that they hearede goe out till they be heard of keeping the heards the owners of such beast shall forfeit for every beast supposed And so to pay for every beast so oft as they are taken only once that are hearded and heard by the when they are turned off from waste And Judge Griffyn is appointed to see the order performed & to have all the forfeits for his labour.

The 5th of March 1655 It is ordered & agreed by the town that a rate of the pound or thereabout shall be levied by the inobedient day published to pay the town debts. And also a rate of thirty pound for the manum maintenance for the last year past ended the first day of the month

The 13th Day of March 1655 John Parmenter Junr William Ward John Ruddle Maynard Robert Darvill Thomas Kinge & John Coll are chosen select men from this day for one year.

The same day ordered by the select men that Ensigne Mayr & James shall see to the fowling of all the town fields on their side of the river & Thomas & Peter Kinge for their side Judge Griffyn & John White for their side & John Parmenter for their side. William Brown & Peter Mayr for their side Norton & Henry King for all the fowling of townfields from nowbridge butchery the town bounds Mr Mayr & Thomas Goodnow for the town fields between mill & ymbridge Phillimon whole & John Grouse to see to their own fowling Robert Darvill & Thomas Kinge to their fowling upon praylaynt John Ruddle & John Mayr for their fields & Henry King & John Maynard for the fields upon Henry King's dwelling & William ward & John Woodward for their fowling. And these surveyors to see that all the fowling of the said fields are made up & kept sufficient according to law. And John Mayr John King & John Woodford are appointed the generall surveyors all over the town to Judge of the sufficiency of the fowling of the generall fields in case of neglect of the select men and particularly appointed for their fields. And also to see of the sufficiency of fowling about many particular propriety in case of & difference.