

plac'd as aforesaid & b^y every time that any out swing be found without a sufficient strong yoke about his neck: the bottom part of every yoke is to be as long as his swing (stand) reaches upon his four feet) is size from the ground to the top of his shoulders. (The shirt to be plac'd up & down to range the yoke about to be six inches eye to eye & the yoke to be to be the bottom of the yoke that is plac'd across his under his throat, for all swing of a year to be upwards, & so proportionably for all swing that and younger fully to find on above & below shall not be required to be paid about ^{the same} out in our day: Moreover if any man swing his wife & children shall out take any man's corn field within his down, to wit is (besides the payment of all damages) forth with to shut up every call sure & wind, & so to be in the land shut up for ever & as good as his log to be & call so far in like manner from him to him shall shut him up as often as he swing his wind or any of them shall after that take any man's corn field (besides payment of all damages): Also the Parson & Curate, Griffin and parish clerk appointed to be his ord^r. after finally for friends on the Eastern side of the great River of the down, & John Goodnow & Robert Allen on the Western side of the River; who are also impowrd to be used to be his ord^r. & above & below of his ord^r of every person who swing shall be found from him to him any way transgressing his ord^r: & not only so, but also every townsman & ale house liberty & power to be ruled by his ord^r, & not to be otherwise

It is ordered that all Noal cattle (or cattle of Cowbire) within the County, having horns of y^e and about a year old beo^e gathered to y^e no^e of summer, from 1st of April 1602. to 1st of last of September = beo^e no^e following, we shall be continually kept under y^e guard of a sufficient number weo^e is sent = be required not to suffer any cattle to rove in (to trespass in any mans property nor) to = feed on any mans meadow after 1st of midle of May no^e or after sure find as leard is f^ord = on y^e uplands, on penalty of forfeiting & paying to every proprietor of y^e lands f^ord shilling = every time sure cattle shall be found so feeding: provided y^e said shall not be liable to = upon y^e and hundred of from words & known to be usually gathered, nor to sure cattle as may be = accidentally lost by y^e herdsman weo^e also are known to be otherwise continually kept under y^e guard of a sufficient number: Also all noal cattle about a year old of y^e County shall be found without a dog as aforesaid, & all dogs of any o^e County shall be found on any lands of y^e County shall forfeit & pay towards a good every kind: John Parmenter is par = ticular to beo^e y^e o^e attached & prosecuted on y^e Eastern side of y^e great river of y^e County, and Robert Mann on y^e western side of y^e river, & to east y^e f^ord & penalties of six pence a year for every kind for y^e pains: & not only y^e but every Townsman shall also be liable to = y^e for every kind of y^e o^e & good every kind: /

It is ordered that all cotes & harts y^e shall be found in any maner in lode cornfield or garden pasture or meadow ground within t^{he} towne & limits thereof shall (besides t^{he} tithes) paying for t^{he} damage done by t^{he} beast also) for foile & pay to t^{he} owner of t^{he} land & hods pound p^{er} head & every time t^{he} cotes or harts shall be so taken & taken y^e 15 of April 1602 C. 16. of November next following:
It is also ordered that if any shoope be found in any maner in lode cornfield or garden pasture or meadow ground, t^{he} owner of t^{he} shoope shall (besides paying for all damage done by t^{he} shoope) for foile & pay to t^{he} owner of t^{he} land two pence & every time for every shoope taken or found:

Exord. ord. of 1682. Blotched with Eddy color, where all written out at large fairly, & exactly as original = Equid on 1682 of March 1682: /

Eddy word all Audibly & deliberately also read by 1682 down start to 1682 Inhabitable of 1682 down indially after 1682 visit on 1682 26 of April, 1682 according to 1682 80 1682 ord. 1682 10: Day 800 1682 1682 folio III: /

The Mini gloire sold for sale at a fair during the last of February last year. It was on the 13th of March 1684 sold to the Hon^{ble} John P. by the Mini gloire. The Mini gloire was accordingly sold for the 13th of March 1684.

minut. $\frac{1}{2}$ years
val. 8-9 u