Fig. S1. Connectivity of the largest previous long distance network [1] within our visualization framework. The network consists of 95 vertices and 2,402 edges. By comparing this network to our network in Figure 1 of the main text, the richness of our data becomes apparent.